

Jay Shah MD, Democratic candidate for 4th district LACO Supervisor

Hello, I'm Dr. Jay Shah and I request to give me a vote and elect me as Supervisor on June 3, 2008

I am Long Beach resident for 25 years, a family man and a county physician specialist for the last 32 years.

I will be accountable in all my actions and I will not do any closed door deals. I am not going to give contracts to vested interest and lobbyist. I will empower women, youth, and seniors. I want equality, respect, dignity, and protection of rights for all the citizens. I will reduce signal mothers plight about raising own children. I will improve quality of medical care in county hospitals and clinics. I will have good citizens as my colleagues. I will support union for all county employees which will protect civil rights.

I am not a politician but I am a community activist for patients rights and an advocate of equal services for the needy and poor.

I will cut waste of money and taxes and reduce crime and pollution.

I want to restore honor and integrity of the office so people can trust.

I would like government by people, for people, and of people.

I WILL NOT COLLECT ANY SALARY AND WILL NOT SEEK A SECOND TERM, SO NEW VOLENTEER CAN SERVE OUR COMMUNITY.

I RESPECTFULLY REQUEST TO VOTE AND ELECT ME AS YOUR SUPERVISOR
